

(From Monday's Daily)

BISBEE ATTORNEY.

Attorney Alex Murry was among the legal lights in town today.

IN DOUGLAS.

County Engineer Sid Smyth was in Douglas today on road matters.

FROM RANCH.

S. N. Gordon was a visitor in town today from his ranch near Turner.

FROM LOWELL.

Judge J. L. Waters, of Lowell, was among the visitors in the county seat today.

FROM BENSON.

Mr. and Mrs. Kempf, of Benson, motored over last evening to take in the movies.

TO BISBEE.

Mrs. Douglas Gray went to Bisbee today to spend several days with friends.

TO BISBEE.

Mrs. Chas. Allen and Mrs. George Wales went to Bisbee this afternoon to visit friends.

FROM FAIRBANK.

Sup't Henry Street, of the Boquillas Land & Cattle Co., of Fairbank, was a brief visitor in the city today.

FROM RANCH.

Sam Barry, well known cattleman from St. David, spent a few hours in the county seat today on business matters.

NEW FLIVVER.

Fred Bennett, local cattleman, is speeding about in a brand new, shiny and highly polished flivver, which is a dandy sight to the eye.

VISITED RANCH.

Miss Helen Benedict, deputy county school superintendent, spent the weekend at the ranch of her parents in Cochise Stronghold, returning last evening.

WERE IN BISBEE.

A party composed of C. L. Cummings, Miss Maud Davis, Miss Nell Rasmussen and Mrs. I. F. Kuchner, becker motored to Bisbee and return Saturday.

OVER FROM BISBEE.

Larry Roudricks, formerly livery operator for the Phoenix, but now with the Bisbee Ore. was a visitor in town yesterday, spending the day with friends.

STAGE PASSENGERS.

Passengers on the Rockhill Stage returning home today were: Mrs. Al Noyes, Mrs. G. Larson, Jessie Sanders, Minnie Sanders, Eric Sanders, Kate Igo, Emma Bishop, Miss Georgia Rhineberger.

FROM PASADENA.

Mrs. Elizabeth Flach, formerly a resident of Tombstone, but now of Pasadena, Cal., arrived in the city today to remain for several days. Mrs. Flach still retains property interests here and makes frequent trips here to give it the proper attention.

ON VISIT TO TEXAS.

Cashier M. M. Hindworth, of the First National Bank, accompanied by his wife, left yesterday for a brief visit to Texas points. They will first visit in El Paso, continuing on to San Antonio and Fort Worth before returning home. They expect to be absent for several weeks.

ENROUTE HOME.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Geo. Henshaw today received a wire from Sheriff James McDonald at Riverside, Calif., that he would soon be home. He has been delayed for several days due to the fact that the witness to whom Francisco Cruz, the Mexican who confessed to killing his wife in Douglas, could not be located.

WILL SOON MOVE.

Work of completion on the new building of the Cochise County State Bank is rapidly nearing an end, and Contractor Eckerman reports it will be ready next week. The bank, which has been temporarily housed in the Machomich store building, will be ready to move back about the first of next week.

RETURNED FROM TAX MEET.

County Assessor E. A. Hughes returned home yesterday from Yuma, where he attended the annual conference of the tax commission and Arizona assessors which was held there during last week. Mr. Hughes reports the session as productive of much good and taxation matters generally discussed. The minimum valuations were also fixed at this meeting. The meeting of the Arizona Assessor's Association was also held, of which Mr. Hughes is president.

JUDGES SWAP BENCHES; BOTH DISQUALIFIED.

Judge A. C. Lockwood is in Safford, where he went to occupy the bench in the Superior Court of that county in a case in which Judge A. G. McAllister is disqualified. Judge McAllister, of Safford, arrived in Tombstone yesterday to occupy the bench in several cases in Tombstone in which Judge Lockwood was disqualified, so both jurists in order to save time and additional expense, swapped benches.

RETURNED WITH PRISONER.

Sheriff J. F. McDonald returned to Tombstone this morning having in custody Francisco Cruz, the Mexican who confessed to having murdered his wife about seven years ago in Douglas, while in Riverside, Calif. A witness, who heard Cruz make the confession, however, could not be located but the statements made by Cruz to the California officers, were enough to hold him for the crime.

SUPERVISORS HOLDSHORT SESSION.*A CORRECTION.

In the account Saturday of the quo warranto proceedings of the board of supervisors against Highway Commission No. 3, it was stated that Supervisors L. C. E. Adams and J. M. Sparks were in attendance, when it should have read L. C. E. Adams and C. M. Roberts, instead of J. M. Sparks. Mr. Roberts was here during the entire session together with Mr. Adams, while Mr. Sparks was absent in Phoenix.

The board of supervisors, Chairman L. C. E. Adams and Member C. M. Roberts, were in session this morning for a short while, routine matters occupying their attention. They adjourned at noon and left for Douglas, where with County Engineer Smyth they will go over road matters there. During their session this morning plans and specifications furnished by the State Engineer for the Benson-Vail federal aid project were approved.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

ATTORNEYS HERE.

Among the attorneys in the city today were Harry E. Pickett, of Douglas and Fred Sutter, of Bisbee, having a case before the Superior court.

TUCSON ATTORNEY.

Don C. Hill, Tucson attorney, was a visitor in Tombstone today.

ARRESTS MOTORISTS.

Speed Officer Ryan spent a busy Sunday in Don Luis. Arriving there at noon he had arrested eight motorists for speeding by 2 o'clock. Officer Ryan reports that some of the drivers were traveling at a speed better than 40 miles an hour.

WANT POSTMASTER.

Examination for postmaster of Naco, Arizona, will be held at the Bisbee postoffice, Wednesday, December 17th, at 9 a. m. Information regarding this examination may be obtained from the civil service clerk at the Bisbee office.

ARGUMENT FOR NEW TRIAL.

Arguments on law points by attorneys for both sides have been on in the Superior court since yesterday before Judge McAllister, in the case of E. J. Hands et al vs. John D. Pife, et al. The suit is one for damages.

IN FROM JOHNSON.

Deputy Sheriff John Bright, of Johnson, was a visitor in the county seat last evening on business at the sheriff's office, returning to his home today. He reports considerable activity in mining circles there.

SAND MEETING.

Last night was regular practice night for the Tombstone City Band. Several new members reported and now almost twenty new members compose the organization, and it will not be long before Tombstone will again be enjoying weekly concerts.

OVER DIVIDE.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gardner motored over the Divide to Bisbee today where Mr. Gardner went to gather up some data in the highway commission office for the final report of the original highway commission which went into office actively Sept. 4, 1917, and which turned its affairs over to the Wallace-Smith commission Sept. 4, 1919. It is said the report will be a very interesting document and will be addressed to the Governor of Arizona, the Board of Supervisors and the taxpayers generally.

IN FROM RANCH.

Robert Axtell, was a visitor in the city today from his ranch in Government Draw.

COMMISSIONER HERE.

U. S. Commissioner J. D. Taylor, of Bisbee, spent part of the day in Tombstone today, returning to his home this afternoon.

IN BISBEE.

C. S. Wilson, Chevrolet salesman for the Day & Night Garage, was in Bisbee today on business connected with the agency.

VISITED IN BISBEE.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Macia, of Tombstone, visited in Bisbee yesterday.

WILL SOON BE HOME.

Mrs. Josephine Rock, who returned yesterday from Rochester, Minn., following a successful operation to her throat, reports that Ray B. Krebs, who recently underwent an operation to have his foot straightened out, expects to start for home to be here in time for Christmas. Mrs. Rock states that Mr. Krebs is now walking about the hospital grounds with the aid of crutches and the lower portion of his limb is still in half cast, but it was expected to be removed within a few days from the time she left. The knife wounds are healing rapidly now she states, and Mr. Krebs feels like a new man, and will have full use of his limb after it completely heals.

TONIGHT.

At the Crystal theater tonight a double bill will be given and we say double because both screens are excellent and well worthy of seeing. Charles Murray is a comedian of more than passing merit and in "Try- ing to Get Along" he is said to have a happy vehicle for the display of his comedian abilities. In "The Test of Honor" the favorite John Barrymore comes to us in a heavier medium to display his talents than we have seen him in before. It's a good bill and worthy of your patronage.

INITIATION.

It is said that three blushing young ladies will be inducted into the mysteries of the Order of the Eastern Star at a special session of that organization called for that purpose at their hall tonight.

TO BISBEE.

Mrs. A. C. Karger motored to Bisbee and back today, visiting with her mother and family in the big copper camp.

RETURNED FROM ROCHESTER, MINN.

Mrs. Josephine Rock, returned to Tombstone today from Rochester, Minn., where she recently underwent a serious operation to her throat. The operation was successful, but she has not entirely recovered from the effects of the surgeons knife. She stopped over in Bisbee yesterday for a visit to her cousin, Mrs. Wm. Shaw, and arrived in Tombstone today. Her many friends are pleased to note her recovery.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

WAS IN BISBEE.

Cattle Inspector Porter McDonald was in Bisbee yesterday on one of his regular trips, returning home last evening.

TO VISIT RELATIVES.

Mrs. Mary Bravin, accompanied by her little son, Bill, went to Bisbee today, where she will remain for several days on a visit with relatives.

ON SHORT VISIT.

Mrs. W. A. Sherrill and mother, Mrs. Mahan, visited in Bisbee between stages today, Mrs. Sherrill having some dental work attended to.

TO BISBEE.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Saunders motored to Bisbee today to spend the day. Mr. Saunders attending to business matters, while Mrs. Saunders visited with relatives.

DON'T DO IT.

If your brakes are not in good condition do not visit Bisbee at this time because the diversion of traffic going into Bisbee from Tombstone makes it necessary to climb and descend some grades that are steep ones.

SOLDIER MARRIES.

Miss Mildred Buckett, of Bisbee, and A. F. Eller, Douglas, were married in Tombstone Friday afternoon. Mr. Eller is still in the army but will receive his discharge soon after the first of the year, until which time Mrs. Eller will remain with her family in the hill city.

TRAPPERS LICENSE.

A law recently passed makes it necessary for trappers to have a license as well as hunters. The full substance of the law is not known, nor the license fee but this information may be gained by application to the State game warden at Phoenix.

W.A. ELING MAN HERE.

Henry Appel, traveling for the Sonora Mercantile company, of Douglas, spent the day in the city today interviewing the local grocery trade. He formerly resided at Gleeson, where he was manager of the C. M. Renaud store there before it was discontinued.

PIONEER VISITING HERE.

Maurice Clark, of Bisbee, son of the man who laid out the Tombstone townsite, in 1889 and 1891, was in Tombstone today, registering at the Arcade. Mr. Clark is an old pioneer of this district himself, having come to Tombstone in the early eighties, and has many old time friends who still reside here. He is representing the Flux Mining company.

RETURNED HOME.

Judge A. G. McAllister, of Safford, Graham county, left this afternoon for Bisbee and Douglas, where he will remain until tomorrow morning before returning to his home in Safford. While in Tombstone the judge heard arguments in the motion of new trial in the case of E. J. Hands, et al. vs. John D. Pife, et al. which he denied. The case was one for damages. Judge Lockwood, who has been in Safford hearing a case in which Judge McAllister was disqualified, is expected home tomorrow.

(From Thursday's Daily)

TO BISBEE.

Sheriff James F. McDonald went to Bisbee this afternoon, where he was called on official matters.

WAS IN BISBEE.

Assistant County Attorney Geo. M. Rank was in Bisbee yesterday, attending to matters connected with his office.

UP FROM ST. DAVID.

J. D. Curtis, well known rancher of St. David was among the visitors in the city today. He will return home this evening.

IN BISBEE.

Cashier K. N. Coplen of the Cochise County State Bank went to Bisbee this afternoon where he will attend to business matters.

COMMISSIONER HERE.

W. J. Reay, member of the Cochise county highway commission, was a visitor in Tombstone today, on official business, returning to his home this afternoon.

TO DOUGLAS.

Chief Deputy Sheriff George Henshaw went to Douglas this morning, where he will attend to some civil matters connected with his office. He expects to return home tomorrow.

THROUGH TO BENSON.

S. E. Moss, was a passenger on the morning stage from Bisbee enroute to Benson, where he will spend several days on a visit with his brother. Mr. Moss is connected with the Ferguson-Keeler company of Phoenix.

FAILED TO CONNECT.

The prophecy that the world would end yesterday having failed of fulfillment, the dance announced for tomorrow night at the Schieffelin will come off as previously announced with the 1st Cavalry orchestra "jazzing" quite a lot.

TO CHINA.

Wong, our fat and genial Chinese laundryman, left today for a ten months' trip to China where he will visit his mother and father and wife and child. Wong is an American citizen, having seen the light of day in San Francisco where his father was a merchant. His father returned to China where he is now teaching school. He goes to Los Angeles and then sails from Frisco and will return to Tombstone next October.

RETURNS FROM TAKING DEPOSITIONS.

County Attorney R. N. French has returned from Los Angeles and Pacific coast cities where he has been the past several weeks taking depositions of witnesses in the Bisbee deportation cases. Mr. French went as far north as Seattle. He is confined to his home today, however, with a severe attack of neuralgia which he contracted due to the severe cold weather in the north.

ELECT OFFICERS.

At a regular convocation of Cochise Chapter No. 4, R. A. M., held last evening, the following officers were elected and installed for the ensuing year:

J. T. Kingsbury, H. P. J. L. Spraks, King; C. J. Wynn, Scribe; J. H. McPherson, Treas.; A. Wentworth, Secy; A. H. Gardner, C. of H.; E. A. Hughes, P. S.; W. A. McSparron, R. A. C.; W. J. Stewart, M. E. V.; G. B. Warner, M. 2 V.; H. L. Hatchison, M. 1 V.; J. N. Gaines, Sent.

FORMER TOMBSTONEPAYS VISIT HERE.

Frank A. Johnson, who resided in Tombstone for several years up to 1909, during which time he was connected with the Tombstone Improvement Company, paid the Old Camp a visit yesterday, remaining until today renewing old acquaintances. He is now connected with the Chas. A. Bacon Co., distributors of Macbeth Auto Lens, and has been placing a large number of the lens in Phoenix, where the new headlight dimmer ordinance recently went into effect. He was accompanied by R. J. Billingsly, of the Ferguson-Keeler Company, of Phoenix. Mr. Johnson met a number of his old time friends while here and was the guest of E. K. Springer, old time side-kicker. He states that Tom Taife, a former Tombstoneite is also connected with the same company in San Francisco.

(From Friday's Daily)

READY TO DRILL.

Local Agent W. T. Boyd, of the Border States Oil company, has received word from A. F. Parker, from El Paso, that the Border States is now about ready to drill on its two hundred acre tract of land in Wilbarger county, Texas, and that purchase of casing for a two thousand foot well was completed yesterday and delivery is expected soon. Drilling will be under way by the first of the year. In the vicinity of the Border States company drilling site there has recently developed much new activity and this has caused a marked increase in the price of land and leases.

COURT TOMORROW.

Tomorrow, Saturday, is regular law and motion day in the Superior court, in which matters and divorces also being set for hearing on that date.

COURTLAND VISITOR.

Rogene Yakum, cattleman of the Courtland district, was a visitor in Tombstone last evening, returning to his home this morning.

LEAVE FOR FRISCO.

Mrs. W. T. Boyd, accompanied by her little son, Bill, and daughter, Marcy, leaves tomorrow for San Francisco, where she expects to spend several months on a visit with relatives.

CHANGES IN PROPERTY.

Several deals involving changes of both resident and business property are reported within the past few days.

WANTED TO COMPROMISEFOR $500.00.

F. W. Mead, the aged mountaineer, who was arrested several days ago in the Huachuca mountains by deputy sheriffs while in the act of running a still, is reported to have offered "to compromise" for $500 if the deputies would turn him loose. Of course his offer was politely refused and he was brought on to Tombstone, where he will be given a hearing soon before Judge Lockwood on the charge of manufacturing.

EXPECTED HOME FOR XMAS.

The Misses Helen and Elizabeth Axtell are expected home tomorrow from Los Angeles and will spend the Christmas holidays in Tombstone with their mother, Mrs. Julia Axtell. Miss Helen is teaching in the Los Angeles schools while Miss Elizabeth is attending the University of Southern California, and will graduate this year.

OVER FROM COURTLAND.

Wm. Holmes, president of the Leadville Mining Company, of Courtland, was a visitor in Tombstone yesterday evening for a short while, returning to his home after a few hours' stay. Mr. Holmes denies that any big ore find has been made on his properties other than a small vein was uncovered by lease working on the properties a short distance from the main shaft, where development work has been going on for some time. The ore is said to run about 10 per cent and may open up into a big body, but as far as any big strike being made, Mr. Holmes stated that he is at a loss to know how the report emanating from Douglas was credited to him, since he made no such statements.

TO BENSON.

Rev. Father Wm. Jno. Leaver will leave Monday after mass for Benson. He will return to Tombstone by auto early Xmas morning.

HERE FROM TUCSON.

G. W. Otey, of the Albert Steinfeld Company, at Tucson, was a visitor in Tombstone today interviewing the local trade. He continued on to Bisbee.

GO TO RANCH.

Prof. J. A. Rockfellow and daughter, Miss Henrietta and son, Philip, leave this evening for the Rockfellow ranch in Cochise Stronghold, where they will join Mrs. Rockfellow remaining during the Christmas holidays.

TO SPEND HOLIDAYS.

Mrs. Josephine Rock went to Bisbee this morning where she will remain during the holidays, as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Shaw.

IN BISBEE.

County School Superintendent Miss Edna Toles was in Bisbee yesterday where she was called on school matters. She has just returned from a visit to the schools at Douglas and the Sulphur Spring valley in that end of the county.

VISITED IN BISBEE.

Court Reporter J. M. Phillipowski, went to Bisbee yesterday, returning home in the evening.

RETURNED HOME.

Superior Judge A. C. Lockwood returned home last evening from Safford, Graham county, where he went to sit in a case in which Judge A. G. McAllister of that county was disqualified. While he was in Safford Judge McAllister came to Tombstone and heard a case in which Judge Lockwood was disqualified. Judge McAllister returned to his home Wednesday.

BUY NOW, AND AT HOME.

Don't delay your Xmas shopping. Those who advertised their wares in our edition of yesterday have a fine line of useful articles suitable for gifts, at the prices, and their assortment can not be excelled in these parts. Buy now before it is too late as Xmas stocks are limited all over the Union. Tombstone is indeed fortunate in having such large Xmas stores this year, and this stands as a creditable reflection upon the merchants of the city. In seeking a place to buy your Xmas gifts remember this one point—you can buy it just as cheap in Tombstone!

ENTERTAINMENT ANDCHRISTMAS TREE.

The Christmas entertainment and Xmas tree will be held at the Congregational church Wednesday evening, Christmas Eve, and the committee in charge announce that Santa Claus has notified them that there will be plenty of good things there for all the tots who will attend. An entertainment program is being arranged for the entertainment of both old and young, and when Santa Claus appears on the scene to hand out the presents not a child is expected to be absent.

(From Saturday's Daily)

FROM FAIRBANK.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Stret, of Fairbank, were visitors in town today.

VISITED RELATIVES.

Mrs. George Henshaw spent yesterday in Bisbee on a visit with friends.

MEET TONIGHT.

The Blue Lodge Masons meet tonight to elect officers for the year 1920.

FROM RANCH.

Wm. Cowan, well known Sulphur Spring Valley cattleman, was a visitor in town today.

TO ST. DAVID.

Assistant County Attorney Jos. Hansen went to St. David today, where he was called on official business.

RETURNED FOR HOLIDAYS.

Miss Mildred Marrs, who is attending the Tempe Normal, arrived home today to remain during the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Marrs.

FOR SALE—160 acre Farm near R. R. Station at Dragon. 20 acres fenced, 3 room dwelling thereon. For particulars writ S. B. Bremster, Stratford, Conn.

—Adv2mE

ADDITIONAL LOCAL ON PAGE 4